

Any person causing or knowingly permitting this section to be violated shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be subject to a penalty of not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars.*

As to the motor vehicle law, see article 56, section 133 et seq.

II.

JURISDICTION. PROCEDURE AND SENTENCE.

Procedure—Indictments—Amendment.

496.

An error in stating the time at which an offence was committed, held immaterial in view of this section. Allen v. State, 128 Md. 267.

498.

See notes to section 122.

501.

See notes to section 122.

Sentence.

522.

See section 677 et seq.

III.

PLACES OF REFORMATION AND PUNISHMENT.

House of Correction.†

523-539. Repealed. (Act of 1916, ch. 556.)

For a case referring to section 535 prior to its repeal, see State v. Darling, 130 Md. 253.

See section 684.

Maryland Industrial School for Girls.

593.‡

State Board of Prison Control.

1916, ch. 556, sec. 623.

623. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint a State Board of Prison Control, and the said Board

*This section is effective July 1, 1918.

†The act of 1916, chapter 688, authorizes the managers of the Maryland house of correction to purchase lands for the enlargement of said institution, etc.

‡The act of 1918, chapter 303, authorizes the Maryland Industrial School for Girls to convey all its property to the State of Maryland, and provides for the continuance under the supervision and control of the state of the work of said school, hereafter to be known as the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls, as a reformatory institution. Said act also provides for the management and maintenance of said school.