Convict Road Force.

1916, ch. 211, sec. 1.

677.‡ The majority of any Board of County Commissioners or other Board in control of the public roads and bridges of any County in the State of Maryland, shall be and they are hereby authorized to employ upon the public roads or bridges of such County as a convict road force, any or all males sentenced to serve terms in the County Jails of their respective Counties, who are in the judgment of the representatives of said County Roads Board physically able to perform such work; and it shall be the duty of the said County Roads Board to provide for the guarding, transportation, lodging, feeding and medical attention of convicts when so employed.

See sections 522 and 641.

*Section 3 of the act of 1916, chapter 556, provides for the repeal of all public general laws and public local laws or parts thereof inconsistent with said act of 1916.

†Apparently it was not the intention of the act of 1916, chapter 556, to repeal section 676, although the matter is not entirely clear.

‡Sections 677 to 691 (as well as sections 523 to 539, 623 to 675 and 692 to 727) were repealed by the act of 1916, chapter 556. That act, however, adopted new sections to be known as sections 623 to 657, and, in order to avoid extending the number of sections of article 27, the sections of chapter 211 of the act of 1916 and of chapter 4 of the act of 1917, are given the numbers 677 to 691.
