

out the provisions of said sections. When prisoners are assigned to the State Roads Commission under Section 686, the aforesaid expenses shall be paid by the State, but when prisoners are assigned to any city, town or county, at its request, under Section 687, said expenses shall be paid by such city, town or county, under such arrangements therefor as it may make with or as may be satisfactory to the State Board of Prison Control.

689. The State Roads Commission, and each county, city or town, as the case may be, shall pay to the State Board of Prison Control, for each prisoner assigned to and employed by it, respectively, as aforesaid, such sum as may be agreed upon with the State Board of Prison Control per day for each and every day that such prisoner is so employed; from which sum, such payments as the State Board of Prison Control may determine shall be held by it to the credit of the prisoner for whose account the same are made, and be paid to him upon his release or discharge, or the said Board, in its discretion, may from time to time pay such portion of said payments as it may deem proper to the wife, children or other person or persons dependent upon such prisoner, if found to be in need by the said Board, and hold the balance of such payments to the credit of the prisoner. The said Board may make such rules and regulations with respect to the collection and disbursement of said payments as may be necessary or proper.

690. All prisoners working upon the roads or streets under Sections 684 to 691, shall be entitled to the same deductions or allowances for good behavior, observance of discipline and rules and for diligent and faithful labor, and shall be subject to the same forfeitures or punishments for the lack or violation thereof, as such prisoners are now entitled to or are subject to under the laws of this State; and in addition to such forfeitures or punishments, any prisoner employed on road work under Sections 684 to 691 who escapes or attempts to escape, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be confined for an additional term, in the discretion of the Court, not exceeding one-half of the entire term for which such prisoner had been sentenced prior to his escape or attempted escape; or such prisoner shall, in the discretion of the Court, be subject to any penalties which may be by law provided for prisoners escaping or attempting to escape from the institution to which he had previously been committed.

691. All expenses and disbursements incurred, under Section 688, by the State Board of Prison Control, for the guarding, transportation, lodging, feeding, clothing and medical and other care and attention of prisoners working under Sections 684 to 691 for the State Roads Com-
