The words "as soon thereafter as practicable" as used in this section relative to the presentation of bills to the Governor, are of a relative and dependent character to be controlled more or less by the circumstances of the case and do not furnish a definite and fixed rule. See notes to article 2, section 17, and article 3, section 30 of the Maryland Constitution. Johnson v. Luers, 129 Md. 526.

Advisory Parole Board.

1914, ch. 500. 1918, ch. 249.

7B. The said Advisory Board of Parole shall each receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) per annum, and shall have power to appoint, and remove at pleasure, not more than four parole officers for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this sub-title, each of whom shall receive compensation, to be fixed by said Advisory Board of Parole, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars per annum, to be paid from the moneys appropriated under the authority of this sub-title. The Advisory Board of Parole shall also, in its discretion, appoint and remove at pleasure other persons to serve as parole officers without pay. And the said Advisory Board shall have power to appoint and remove at pleasure a secretary, at a salary not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum. The members of the Advisory Board of Parole, and the parole officers appointed by it, are authorized and empowered to arrest, without warrant, all persons who violate the terms of their parole or conditional pardon, wherever found within the State.
