

same label or brand with a statement of the place where said article has been manufactured or produced.

Second. In the case of articles labeled, branded or tagged so as to plainly indicate that they are compounds, imitations or blends, and the word "compound," "imitations" or "blend," as the case may be, is plainly stated on the package in which it is offered for sale; provided, that the term blend as used herein shall be construed to mean a mixture of like substances, not excluding harmless coloring or flavoring ingredients used for the purpose of coloring and flavoring only.

In case of water:

First. In case of mineral waters labeled "artificial," in conformity with the provisions of sections 166 to 177, the label bear any design or device which would lead the consumer to believe that the water is a natural one.

Second. Or if characterized by a geographical name which gives a false or misleading idea in regard to composition of said water.

As to disinfectants:

If in the case of disinfectants manufactured or sold in this State the manufacturers, sales agents or dealers fail to show on the labels the carbolic acid coefficient or relative germicidal strength of such disinfectants as compared with pure carbolic acid; provided, however, that deodorants and antiseptics having no germicidal strength must be plainly labeled and sold as such and such preparations as have no such germicidal strength, shall not be labeled "disinfectants."

Cold Storage—Food Products.

1916, ch. 163.

177 I. For the purpose of this sub-title, "cold storage" shall mean the storage or keeping of articles of food at or below a temperature above zero of 45 degrees Fahrenheit in a cold storage warehouse; "cold storage warehouse" shall mean any place artificially cooled to or below a temperature above zero of 45 degrees Fahrenheit, in which articles of food are placed and held for 30 days or more; "articles of food" shall mean fresh meat and fresh meat products and all fish, game, poultry, eggs and butter.*

1916, ch. 163.

177J. No person, firm or corporation shall maintain or operate a cold storage warehouse without a license so to do issued by the Secretary of the State Board of Health. Any person, firm or corporation desiring such a license shall make written application to the Secretary of the State Board of Health for that purpose, stating the location of the warehouse. The Secretary of the State Board of Health thereupon

*Section 3 of the act of 1916, chapter 163, provides that said act may be cited as "The Uniform Cold Storage Act." Section 4 repeals all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the act of 1916, chapter 163.
