

osteopathy as defined in Section 300 of this Article, in treating diseases or any ailment whatsoever of the human body, or who shall use any of the terms or letters—osteopath, osteopaths, osteopathy, doctor osteopathy, diplomat in osteopathy or D. O.,—or any other titles or letters under such circumstances as to induce the belief that the person who uses such terms is engaged in the practice of osteopathy, without having first obtained the license herein provided for, or contrary to the provisions of this sub-title; or who shall practice or attempt to practice osteopathy under the name or term—chiropractic, neuropathy, mechanotherapy, naprapthy; provided, however, that nothing in Sections 298 or 302 shall apply to graduates who have diplomas or certificates from a recognized chiropractic school, college or institution; or who shall, under any other term or name practice or attempt to practice osteopathy as defined in Section 300 of this Article, or who, for the purpose of obtaining such license, shall falsely represent himself or herself to be the holder of a diploma as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, or the Circuit Court of the County in which the offense may have been committed, shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the City or County jail for not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days for each offense, either or both, at the discretion of the Court; provided, however, that nothing contained in this sub-title shall be construed in affecting the so-called practice of medicine.

See notes to section 298.

303.

See notes to section 298.

Chiropody.

1916, ch. 173, sec. 1.

304. All persons now practicing chiropody, or who shall hereafter begin to practice chiropody in the State of Maryland, shall possess the qualifications required by this sub-title.

1916, ch. 173, sec. 2.

305. There shall be established a board of chiropody examiners for the State of Maryland. This Board shall consist of four members, who shall be selected by the Board of Medical Examiners of Maryland at its annual meeting (in June), three of the said four members to be selected from among the members of the Maryland Podic Association, and one from among the members of said Board of Medical Examiners of Maryland; and each appointee is immediately after his election to be furnished with a certificate thereof by the said Board electing him. The term of office of the four members first appointed shall be for one year, two years, three years and four years respectively. The Board