

1916, ch. 173, sec. 8.

311. From and after April 4, 1916, any person not heretofore authorized to practice chiropody in this State and desiring to enter upon such practice, shall file with the said Board of Chiropody Examiners, upon payment of a fee of Fifteen Dollars, a written application for examination, together with satisfactory proof that the applicant is not less than twenty-one years of age, is of good moral character and has obtained a preliminary education which is equivalent to two years instruction in a high school. The fact that such instruction has been received by the applicant must be evidenced by a certificate satisfactory to the said Board of Chiropody Examiners. Such applicant must also, before presenting him or herself for examination, be a graduate of a reputable and legally incorporated school of chiropody, acceptable to the Board, or must, (in addition to the preliminary education above set forth) present a certificate from a duly licensed chiropodist practicing in this State, stating that he has worked under such chiropodist, as his preceptor for a period of one year prior to the making of such application. Thereupon the said applicant shall be subjected to an examination.

1916, ch. 173, sec. 9.

312. Any one who shall practice or attempt to practice chiropody in this State without having complied with the provisions of this subtitle shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than Fifty Dollars nor more than Two Hundred Dollars, and in default of payment of such fine shall be imprisoned for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. Such fines, when collected, are to be paid into the treasury of the State of Maryland. Nothing in this sub-title, however, shall be construed to interfere with physicians in the discharge of their professional duties.

313. The Board of Chiropody Examiners may revoke by a majority vote of its members any certificate which it has issued and cause the name of the holder to be stricken from the book of registration by a certificate to the Clerk of the Court in which the name of the person whose license is revoked is registered for any of the following causes:

(a) If any person, who, in any affidavit or examination required of an applicant for examination, certificate or registration under the laws regulating the practice of chiropody, shall willfully make a false statement in a material regard;

(b) Any person who shall allow or permit others than him or herself to practice under a certificate or license issued to him;

(c) Any person convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude;

(d) Any person habitually indulging in the use of ardent spirits, narcotics, stimulants or any other substance which impairs intellect and judgment to such an extent as, in the opinion of the Board of Chirop-
