1870, ch. 291. 1888, ch. 156. 1916, ch. 309, sec. 45.

45. It shall and may be lawful for any grower or any owner of tobacco grown in this State to sell the same either in the State or out of it, in hogsheads of any size or weight, or in boxes, or in any other kind of style of package, without being compelled to have the same inspected by the State inspectors and without being compelled to place the same in the State warehouses for any purpose whatsoever, or to pay any charge for outage, storage or any other charge thereon, to the State or any of its constituted officers.

See notes to this section in volume 1 of the Annotated Code.

1904, art. 48, sec. 48. 1888, art. 48, sec. 49. 1888, ch. 176, sec. 3.
1916, ch. 309, sec. 46.

46. If any grower or owner of tobacco grown in this State shall desire to store such tobacco in any of the State tobacco warehouses, without having the same inspected by the State inspectors and without the same being subject to the laws relating to inspections of tobacco, he may do so upon paying storage therefor at the rate of twenty-five cents per hogshead per month, or fractional part of a month, for the first two months that said tobacco shall remain in said warehouses, and fifteen cents per month or fractional part of a month for every succeeding month that said tobacco shall remain in said warehouses; but no charge for outage shall be made upon said tobacco, and all money received from said storage shall be credited to the warehouse receipts of the warehouse in which said tobacco shall be stored but no tobacco stored in said warehouse under the provisions of this section shall be inspected in said warehouse by a private inspector; and the said tobacco may at any time be removed from said warehouse by the owner upon
