

ARTICLE LI.

JURIES.

Qualification and Selection of Jurors.

1.

This section is directory merely: to invalidate an indictment upon the ground of the non-age of a juror, it must appear that the traverser was prejudiced thereby. Hollars v. State, 125 Md. 370.

To the first note to this section on page 1268 of volume 1 of the Annotated Code, add Hollars v. State, 125 Md. 371.

3.

To the first note to this section on page 1269 of volume 1 of the Annotated Code, add Hollars v. State, 125 Md. 371.

4.

See notes to section 6.

6.

In the light of sections 4 and 7, and since the list provided for in this section is a list of the male taxable inhabitants or residents of the county only, the poll books are given as an alternative or additional source from which jurors may be obtained. A list in the possession of a judge held to be the kind of list set out in this section as a proper source from which the names are to be selected. Hollars v. State, 125 Md. 373.

To the third note to this section on page 1270 of volume 1 of the Annotated Code, add Hollars v. State, 125 Md. 373.

7.

To the first note to this section on page 1271 of volume 1 of the Annotated Code, add Hollars v. State, 125 Md. 373.

See notes to section 6.

13.

Before the jury was sworn the court allowed a party to withdraw his strike of a juror and exercise such strike against a man who had been originally accepted for the panel, the result being the substitution on the panel of the former for the latter; such action being within the discretion of the court and not appearing to have resulted in injury, was no ground of reversal. Blumenthal & Bickart v. May Co., 127 Md. 285.