

ARTICLE LII.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

Civil Jurisdiction.

7.

In order to defeat the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace under this section, it must appear from the nature of the action itself that it was one in which the title to land is necessarily and directly in issue; a suit for the improper and negligent construction and operation of trains at and near the plaintiff's residence is not such a case. B. & O. R. R. v. Owens, 130 Md. 679.

Criminal Jurisdiction.

12.

To the first note to this section on page 1286 of volume 1 of the Annotated Code, add Starliper v. State, 126 Md. 297.
