

1916, ch. 311, sec. 7.

5. The militia of the State shall be divided into two classes—the active and the unorganized militia. The active militia shall consist of the organized and uniformed military forces of the State, which shall be known as the Maryland National Guard; the unorganized militia shall consist of all those liable to services in the militia, but not serving in the National Guard.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 8.

6. The Governor of the State, by virtue of his office, shall be the Commander-in-Chief of the militia of the State, except as of such portions as may at times be in the service of the United States. No armed military force from another State, Territory, or District, shall be permitted to enter the State for the purpose of doing military duty therein, without the permission of the Governor, unless such force is part of the United States Army, or is actually under the authority of the United States.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 9.

7. The Governor shall have the power in case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, breach of peace, or imminent danger thereof, or to enforce the laws of this State, to order into service of the state any part of the militia that he may deem proper. When the militia shall be on active service as herein provided, the commanding officer thereof, and his subordinates, shall be, and they are hereby invested with all the authority of sheriffs, and deputy sheriffs, in enforcing the laws of this state, and they may co-operate with the civil authorities, or take entire charge of the situation as in the judgment of the commanding officer the exigencies of the case may require.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 10.

8. When the militia of this state, or a part thereof, is called forth under the constitution and laws of the United States, the Governor shall order out for service the National Guard or such part thereof as may be necessary, and if the number available be insufficient he shall order out such part of the unorganized militia as he may deem necessary. During the absence of organizations of the National Guard in the service of the United States their state designations shall not be given to new organizations.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 11.

9. Whenever the laws of the United States require the several states to maintain its National Guard at a certain required number, and shall further provide that in the event a state does not comply with such requirement, the President of the United States shall have the power to organize the unorganized militia, or any part thereof, as may be necessary, into the National Guard, so as to maintain the neces-
