

for duty in time of war, insurrection, invasion, public danger, or to aid the civil authorities on account of any breach of the peace, tumult, riot, resistance to process of this State, or imminent danger thereof, or for any other cause, the Article of War governing the army of the United States, as well as such regulations issued thereunder, shall be in force and regarded as part of this article until said forces shall be duly relieved from such duty. As to offenses committed when such Articles of War are in force, courts-martial shall possess, in addition to the jurisdiction and power of sentence and punishment therein vested to them, all additional jurisdiction and power of sentence and punishment exercisable by like courts under such Articles of War or the regulations and laws governing the United States Army, or the customs and usages thereof; but no punishment under such rules and articles, which shall extend to the taking of life, shall in any case be inflicted, except in time of actual war, invasion or insurrection, and then only after approval by the Governor of the sentence inflicting such punishment. Imprisonment other than in guardhouse shall be executed in jails or prisons designated by the Governor for the purpose.

13. The Governor and Commander-in-Chief shall have power to make such rules, orders and regulations for the enlistment, organization, discipline and equipment of the National Guard of this State from time to time as may become necessary, in order that the enlistment, organization, discipline and equipment of the National Guard of this State may conform to the Acts of Congress and regulations of the War Department of the United States governing the National Guard of the various states.

14. All matters relating to the organization, discipline and government of the National Guard shall be decided by the laws and requirements of the United States Army and Navy respectively.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 17. 1917, ch. 27, sec. 17.

15. The staff of the Governor shall consist of the Adjutant General, who shall be chief of staff and acting Quartermaster General, and shall have the rank of Brigadier General, and whose salary shall be three thousand dollars per annum and the said sum is hereby appropriated for that purpose annually, and the Comptroller is directed to draw his warrant on the Treasurer who is hereby directed to pay the same in equal monthly instalments; and a Quartermaster General, a Chief of Ordnance, an Inspector-General, a Surgeon-General, a Judge-Advocate General; all of whom shall have the rank of Brigadier-General, and shall be appointed by the Governor; and the Governor is hereby empowered to appoint such number of aides, not exceeding ten, with the rank of Colonel, as may be necessary to the discharge of his duties as
