

of the Brigade Commander) may require the officers and enlisted men of his command to meet for parade, drill or instruction at such times and places as he may appoint.

53. The system of discipline and exercises of the National Guard of this State shall conform generally for the land forces to that of the United States Army, and for the Naval Reserves to that of the United States Navy, as they are now or may hereafter be prescribed by the President and to the provisions of the laws of the United States.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 56.

54. All officers, and enlisted men who enter the service of the State for three years, shall be furnished by the State with a service uniform, or such uniforms as the Governor may direct, corresponding in make and general appearance to the uniforms of the United States Army and United States Navy, respectively.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 57.

55. All arms, equipments and other property furnished to organizations of this State shall, when required by the Adjutant General, the commanding officer of the Brigade, the commanding officer of the Naval Brigade, the commanding officer of the regiment, company or separate organizations, be deposited in the armory of the said regiment, company or separate organization, and failure to deposit as aforesaid any article of such property by the person to whom it was issued, ten days after he shall have been notified, by written notice from the commanding officer as aforesaid to return it to the armory, shall be considered as a misdemeanor, and the person so offending shall be punished by a fine not exceeding double the value of the property thus illegally detained, to be recovered on the complaint of the Adjutant General or of the proper commanding officer as aforesaid, in the same manner as prescribed for the collection of fines in this Article, except that the money so recovered shall be paid to the Adjutant General of the State, to be by him applied to the militia fund, or by imprisonment in the county or city jail for not less than two weeks nor more than two months.

56. Every officer and enlisted man to whom public property of the State or United States has been issued shall be personally responsible to the State for such property, and no one shall be relieved from such responsibility except it be shown to the satisfaction of the Governor that the loss or destruction of such property was unavoidable and in no way the fault of the person responsible for the same; in all other cases the value of the property lost or destroyed shall be charged against the person at fault or the organization to which it had been issued; and
