

are hereby authorized, subject to the approval of the Governor and the Adjutant General of the State, to constitute themselves County Guards of the county in which they may be serving as fire companies.

1917, ch. 25, sec. 2.

99. The Adjutant General, with the approval of the Governor, shall prescribe such rules and regulations governing the duties and service of such County Guards as he may deem necessary, and such rules and regulations, when promulgated, shall have the effect of law. County Guards, when approved as such, shall become subject to the militia laws of the State.

Armories.

1918, ch. 143.

100. All armories owned by the State of Maryland, and all buildings occupied, leased or rented by or in behalf of the State for the purpose of organizing, training and equipping such State military forces as may now or hereafter be authorized by law, shall be under the management and control of the State Armory Commission hereby created. Said Commission shall consist of the Governor, the Adjutant General and the Comptroller. Said Commission shall be vested with the management, care, control and maintenance of the armories and other buildings aforesaid, together with all power and authority necessary or desirable for such purposes, and with the right to make and enforce all reasonable rules and regulations in connection therewith.

Nothing in the Act of 1918, Chapter 143, shall be construed to interfere with or abrogate the duties or powers of building commissions and committees created for the purpose of constructing and equipping armories authorized by the laws of the State. Any monies in the hands of or due to the Board of Trustees of the Fifth Regiment Armory, shall be paid to the State Armory Commission.*
