

hundred and seventy-five dollars ($675) for a person, holding a first-class certificate of three years experience as teacher in an approved high school; not less than seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750) for a person holding a first class certificate, of five years' experience as a teacher in an approved high school; and not less than eight hundred dollars ($800) for a person, holding a first class certificate, of eight years' experience as teacher in an approved high school. Experience prior to the year 1910 shall not be considered in determining the salary of the principal and assistant teachers; (e) provision shall be made for manual or industrial training and domestic science courses, and also for an agricultural course, as may be determined by the county board of education, on the approval of the state superintendent of schools; (f) no person shall be employed as principal or assistant teacher not holding the appropriate certificate as provided for in Chapter 8 of this Article. The course of instruction in schools of the second group may be extended to four years by the county board of education on the approval of the state superintendent of schools, by the employment of such additional teacher or teachers, as may be required by the state superintendent of schools; provided, that the salary of such additional teacher or teachers shall be paid wholly by the county board of education; and in the schools of the second group, where the course of instruction has been so extended to a four-year course, the graduates shall receive the same recognition as graduates of schools of the first group. No promotions of high school pupils from one grade to another, or graduation, shall be made without the approval of the principal and the county superintendent.

See notes to this section in volumes 2 and 3 of the Annotated Code.

126A. To encourage the idea that no person should enter upon the duties of teaching without special training for the work, the county board of education of any county, with the approval of the state superintendent of schools, may inaugurate in one approved high school of the first group, a two years' teachers' training course for students having completed successfully the tenth year grade, and who wish to prepare themselves for teaching. The state board of education shall prescribe the course and all necessary regulations to make the work of the course effective.

127. It shall be the duty of the state superintendent of schools, or an assistant designated by him, to make an annual inspection of all high schools receiving state aid, and also such other schools as make application, through their respective county superintendents, to receive said state aid. The state superintendent of schools shall, on or before the last day of September of each year, prepare a list of high schools, designating the group to which each belongs, the amount of said state aid
