

tees." Nothing in the Act of 1916, chapter 506, shall be construed to modify the duties or increase the powers of the State Board of Education with reference to the schools in Baltimore City.*

174. Repealed. (Act of 1916, ch. 506.)

1918, ch. 75.

176A. It shall be the duty of the Board of Education of each and every county in the State of Maryland, and of the Board of Education for Baltimore City, in the State of Maryland, to cause to have displayed a flag of the United States of America upon every public school building within their respective jurisdictions while said schools are in session, and to that end shall make all necessary purchase of flags, staffs and appliances therefor and establish rules and regulations for the proper custody, care and display of the flag in said schools; and it shall be the duty of said Boards of Education to prepare for the use of the public schools of the State a programme providing for the salute to the flag, and such other patriotic exercises from time to time as may be deemed by them to be expedient, and under such regulations and instruction as may best meet the various requirements of the different grades in such schools; all to the end that the love of liberty and democracy, signified in the devotion of all true and patriotic Americans to their flag and to their country, shall be instilled in the hearts and minds of the youth of America.

1918, ch. 72, sec. 1.

196. The State of Maryland hereby accepts all of the provisions and the benefits of an Act passed by the Senate and House of Repre-

*Section 2 of the act of 1916, chapter 506, provides for the repeal of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with said act of 1916, to the extent of such inconsistency.

†The act of 1916, chapter 372, incorporates the Maryland State College of Agriculture, provides for trustees thereof and their meetings, for the officers of said college and their salaries, prescribes the powers of the trustees and officers, confers upon the state college of agriculture all endowments now owned by the Maryland Agricultural College, imposes upon the former all the powers and duties devolving upon the latter, names the state college of agriculture to receive appropriations and grants coming from the United States Government, and vests in said corporation all property used or operated by, or in the possession of, the Maryland Agricultural College and the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station, and provides that the attorney-general of Maryland shall be the legal adviser of the trustees.

The act of 1916, chapter 225, directs the Governor to appoint the same persons to the state board of agriculture as are appointed to the board of trustees of the state college of agriculture (formerly the Maryland Agricultural College).
