

Commission shall institute mandamus proceedings against any such Board of County Commissioners of any County so refusing and a mandamus shall issue compelling any such Board to perform the duties herein provided.

1916, ch. 629, sec. 252.

252. Each County Commissioner of a County having three Commissioners shall receive five dollars per day for actual services rendered in connection with the reassessment of property in their County, and the County Commissioners of Counties having more than three Commissioners shall each receive three dollars per day for actual services rendered in the assessment of property in their County, but the State Tax Commission is given the authority to decide how much time is necessary to do this work, and if the County Commissioners of any County have not completed their work within that time, then in that event the necessary time to complete it must be done without compensation. The County Commissioners of the several Counties in connection with the reassessment of the property in their respective County shall have the right to appoint a clerk in addition to the regular clerk of the Board, who shall receive for each day of actual service as such clerk the sum of three dollars per day. The counsel to the County Commissioners in their respective County shall be counsel to the said Commissioners in regard to the reassessment of property in their respective County, and shall be entitled to a fair and reasonable compensation for services rendered to said County Commissioners in addition to the salary as counsel to the said County Commissioners; all of which compensation for the County assessors, County Commissioners acting in regard to the reassessment of property in their respective County, their clerk and counsel, shall be paid by the Counties in which such duties are respectively performed, and the accounts for these services rendered, shall be approved by the County Commissioners for such County before the same are paid.

253. At any time an assessment of all of the property of any county, district or town is to be made, notice of proposed assessments may be made by publication in one or more newspapers published in the County or in such other uniform manner as the State Tax Commission may determine.

Uniformity of Taxation in Incorporated Towns.

1916, ch. 656, sec. 1.

254. All incorporated towns within this State are hereby directed to follow for local purposes the rules for uniform taxation within their respective jurisdictions as to land and uniform taxation within each class or sub-class of improvements and personal property as provided for the levying of State, County and City taxes by Article 15 of the
