This and the following section referred to in an interpleader proceeding. Horner v. Lehman, 130 Md. 277.

20.

See notes to section 19.

Uniform Sales Act.

Chapter I.

22.

The validity of conditional sales is recognized by this section and section 39; such contracts are not unconscionable nor contrary to public policy. See notes to article 21, section 43. Dinsmore v. Maag-Wahmann Co., 122 Md. 182.

25.

This section changes the rule that a sale of a crop not yet thrashed, shucked or gathered, was not a sale of goods, wares or merchandise, and hence was not within the 17th section of the Statute of Frauds. Purchaser held to have accepted and received the wheat and given something in payment (if his contention is correct). Although a contract may not be enforced on account of the Statute of Frauds it may serve as a defence. Willard v. Higdon, 123 Md. 452.

This section referred to in deciding that a party was not obligated to accept or pay for goods because they were not purchased by an agent actually authorized to do so or who was held out as having such authority. Scope of the authority of a "buyer." Brager v. Levy, 122 Md. 558.
