

dren; that they are sufficiently clothed and fed; that they attend school regularly and that said family shall be visited at least once every two months.

The County Commissioners, in the County in which applicant or petitioner resides or the Board for Mothers' Relief for Baltimore City shall report to the Juvenile Court, or, if none exists, to the Circuit Court in such County or to the Juvenile Court for Baltimore City, in the case of any widow mother who does not properly care for and educate her child or children, or when they find that she no longer needs such support. The Circuit Court or the Juvenile Court shall thereupon revoke any order made pursuant to this sub-title, at any time, with or without notice, and in lieu thereof make any order that in the judgment of the Court may protect the welfare of the child or children.

25. Should the fund or funds available be insufficient to permit of an allowance to only a part of the mothers coming within the provisions of this sub-title, the County Commissioners in the several Counties or the Board for Mothers' Relief for Baltimore City, shall select in their discretion those in most urgent need of such allowance, and submit such selections, after full investigation, to the Circuit or Juvenile Court of such Counties or to the Juvenile Court for Baltimore City for approval, which shall accept the same or make a different selection on its own account, which shall then be conclusive.

26. The Board for Mothers' Relief for Baltimore City shall have the power to employ assistant investigators, not at any time to exceed three, at a salary of nine hundred dollars ($900) per year for each investigator, at such time that the Board finds itself physically unable to conduct investigations, by reason of the burden of work, whose duties shall be to thoroughly investigate all applications or petitions and to make stated visits to the homes of the applicants or petitioners and for such other work as the Board may prescribe. The Board for Mothers' Relief for Baltimore City may also call for the assistance of the probation officers of the Juvenile Court to assist it in making like investigations and reports.

27. Any person knowingly and wilfully procuring, or attempting to procure any allowance or relief, by false testimony or representation, for herself or for a person not entitled thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) and not more than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) or by imprisonment in the County Jail of the County wherein the offense occurs or the City Jail of Baltimore City for a period of not more than six months or by fine and imprisonment.
