

1912, ch. 731, sec. 30. 1916, ch. 222, sec. 30.

30. Such permit shall state the name and the date and place of birth of the child, the name and address of the parent or guardian or custodian or next friend making application for such permit, and shall describe the color of the hair and eyes, the height and weight, and any distinguishing facial marks of such child, and shall further state that the papers required by the preceding sections have been duly examined and signed, and that the child named in such permit has personally appeared before the officer issuing the permit. The badge furnished by the officer issuing the permit shall bear on its face a number corresponding to the number of the permit. Every such permit on its reverse side shall be signed in the presence of the officer issuing the same by the child in whose name it is issued.

1912, ch. 731, sec. 31. 1916, ch. 222, sec. 31.

31. The badge provided for herein shall be worn conspicuously at all times by such child while so working. All such permits and badges shall expire one year from the date of issue, and no such permit or badge shall be authority beyond the period fixed therein for its duration.

No child to whom such permit and badge are issued shall transfer the same to any other person. He shall exhibit the same upon demand at any time to any officer charged with the duty of enforcing the provisions of this article relating to street trades.

1918, ch. 495.

36A. The State Board of Labor and Statistics shall have the discretion of issuing temporary permits to boys over fourteen years of age, who are mentally retarded and are unable to make further advancement at school, upon the written recommendation of the Superintendent of Education, of the City of Baltimore or any County in the State, as the case may be.*

1912, ch. 731, sec. 37. 1916, ch. 222, sec. 37.

37. Any person, firm or corporation, agent or manager of any firm or corporation, who whether for himself or for such firm or corporation, or by himself, or through agents, servants or foremen, employs, permits or suffers any child to work, and whoever having under his control as parent, guardian, custodian or otherwise, any child, permits or suffers such child to be employed or to work, in violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title, shall for a first offence be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars; for a second offence by a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than ten days or by both such fine and imprisonment.
