

and badge as provided by section 28, any newspapers, magazines or periodicals with the knowledge that said minor intends to sell the same, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than ten days or by both such fine and imprisonment; and any sale of such articles at less than the current retail price thereof shall be prima facie evidence that the person so selling had knowledge that the minor to whom said sale was made intended to resell said articles.

1912, ch. 731, sec. 48. 1914, ch. 840, sec. 48. 1916, ch. 222, sec. 48.

48. The Chief of the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information is hereby authorized to appoint four inspectors at a compensation not exceeding one thousand dollars each per annum, and three officers whose duty it shall be to issue and supervise the issuance of employment certificates, and to act as inspectors, at a compensation not exceeding twelve hundred dollars each per annum, and one officer who shall act as inspector of street trades, at a salary not exceeding twelve hundred dollars per annum, to carry out the provisions of this Article; they shall also be allowed their actual expenses when away from the City of Baltimore on the business of their office; they shall be attached to and be part of the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information, and be subject to the order of the Chief of said bureau, whose duty it shall be to see that the provisions of this article are enforced; and said chief of said bureau is further empowered to designate one or more regular physicians and other attendants who shall be attached to and be part of the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information, and be subject to the order of the chief of said bureau, and who shall have such duties and receive such compensation as shall be determined upon by said chief provided, however, that the total compensation of all physicians and attendants so employed by said chief of the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars per annum.

Hours of Labor for Females.

1912, ch. 79, sec. 14. 1916, ch. 147.

51. No female shall be employed or permitted to work in any manufacturing, mechanical, mercantile, printing, baking or laundering establishment more than ten hours in any one day, nor more than sixty hours in any one week, nor more than eight hours in any one day, if any part of her work is done before six o'clock in the morning or after ten o'clock in the evening of the said day, nor shall any female be employed or permitted to work for more than six hours continuously at any one time in any of the aforesaid establishments in which three or more such persons are employed, without an interval of, at least, a half hour, except that such female may be so employed for not more than six and a half hours continuously at one time, if she shall not be permitted to work during the remainder of the day in her said employ-