

Health—Infants.

An. Code, sec. 245. 1904, sec. 231. 1894, ch. 511, secs. 1 and 2.

277. If any time within two weeks after the birth of any infant one or both of its eyes or the eyelids be reddened, inflamed, swollen or discharging pus, the midwife, nurse or person other than a legally qualified physician, in charge of such infant, shall refrain from the application of any remedy for the same, and shall immediately report such condition to the health commissioner or to some legally qualified physician in the city, county or town wherein the infant is cared for. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this section shall on conviction be punished by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail not to exceed six months, or by both fine and imprisonment.

See art. 43, sec. 92.

Heath—Milk—Pure—Skimmed.

An. Code, sec. 246. 1904, sec. 232. 1900, ch. 459, sec. 138C.

278. For the purposes of sections 278, 279 and 280 the standard for pure milk shall be not more than eighty-seven and one-half per centum of water or fluids, and not less than twelve and one-half per centum of milk solids, of which at least three and one-half per centum shall be butter fats.

See note to sec. 281.

An. Code, sec. 247. 1904, sec. 233. 1888, sec. 138D.

279. For the purposes of said sections milk shall be deemed to be sophisticated, adulterated or unwholesome when it does not contain twelve and one-half per centum of milk solids, of which three and one-half per centum shall be butter fats; or to which has been added salt, boracic acid, salicylic acid, salicylate of soda, formaldehyde or any other acid, drug, compound or substance, or to which ice or water has been added for any purpose whatsoever; or which has been taken from an animal ten days before or five days after parturition; or which has been taken from a sick or diseased animal; or which has been taken from animals fed in whole or in part on garbage or any substance in a state of fermentation or putrefaction, or food that produces impure, diseased or unwholesome milk, or from cows stabled near a house where there is an infectious disease; or from which a portion of the cream has been taken; but nothing in these sections shall be construed as prohibiting the addition of sugar in the manufacture of condensed or preserved milk, or as prohibiting the sale of pure skimmed milk, when sold as such, and from cans plainly and conspicuously marked with the sign or placard "Skimmed Milk," in capital letters, each of a size of not less than one inch square, or as prohibiting the sale of pure, wholesome milk, not complying with the provisions of section 278, for the manufacture therefrom of butter, cheese or other products. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the feeding of ensilage from silos.

See note to sec. 281.

As to "Dairies," see art. 58, sec. 24, et seq.
