Character and reputation are synonymous terms. A conviction of the accused for winning a watch by a fraudulent trick at cards, held not evidence. This section strictly construed. World v. State, 50 Md. 54.

As to larceny, see sec. 318, et seq.

An. Code, sec. 445. 1904, sec. 393. 1888, sec. 256. 1864, ch. 38.

493. If any person shall be arrested at any place on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, or on the line of the Northern Central railroad, or on the line of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad, or the Baltimore and Potomac railroad, or the Western Maryland railroad, or any other railroad running out of Baltimore city, or in any of the cars or depots, or at any of the stations on said roads, or on any ferry boat employed to carry passengers over any part of said roads and within the limits of this State, charged with being a common thief or pickpocket, such person may be taken before any justice of the peace of the county in which said place, or depot or station may be situated; or if such person be arrested in any car or on any ferry boat, before any justice of the peace of the nearest convenient county or of the city of Baltimore;¹ and such justice shall on proof as provided in the preceding section commit or bail such person for trial before the circuit court for the county, or the criminal court of Baltimore, as the case may be; and all police officers of Baltimore city, and all conductors of trains and police employed by any of said railway companies, and all constables and bailiffs of any county or city on the lines of said roads shall arrest all such persons at any of the places aforesaid on the same knowledge and proof of their being common thieves or pickpockets as provided in the preceding section, and the said justice shall commit or bail such persons on the same knowledge or proof. Any person convicted in any county on the line of said roads with being a common pickpocket shall be punished by fine or imprisonment in the jail of the county for the same time and in the same amount as provided in the preceding section; and all the provisions of the preceding sections shall apply to all cases under this section, except so far as altered by this section.

See note to sec. 492.
