1918, ch. 303, sec. 6.

630. Said institution shall be non-sectarian, but the girls committed to said institution shall receive regular religious instruction for which the said Board shall make provision.

1918, ch. 303, sec. 7. 1922, ch. 215.

631. All legacies now held and existing, and all legacies that may hereafter be given by persons dying after June 1, 1918 and the acquisition by the State of Maryland as aforesaid of the property and rights of said now existing corporation, the said Maryland Industrial School for Girls, and all appropriations by the State of Maryland and the City of Baltimore and the several counties of the State of Maryland made or contracted for, and gifts, grants, and devises heretofore and hereafter to be made, given, granted, devised or bequeathed to the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls or to the said Maryland Industrial School for Girls, either under or by said name, or under its former name of the Female House of Refuge shall survive and inure to the benefit of and vest in the Board of Managers of the Montrose School for Girls as appointed under the provisions of this sub-title.

1918, ch. 303, sec. 8.

632. The Board of Managers of the Montrose School for Girls shall provide accommodations and proper care and training for at least one hundred girls who may be committed to said school from the various counties of the State and from Baltimore City, which number shall be from time to time apportioned among the several Counties and the City of Baltimore, according to the population as ascertained by the preceding census, and the County Commissioners of each County and the Mayor and City Council of said City are hereby authorized and directed to levy annually upon the assessable property of each of said Counties and said City, respectively, an amount equal to one hundred and thirty ($130) dollars per annum for each girl so apportioned, to be collected in the same manner as other taxes; and out of the said sum so levied by each County and by the said City, respectively, the proper disbursing officer of each of said Counties and said City shall pay to the said Board of Managers of the Montrose School for Girls at the end of each quarter of the calendar year, an amount equal to the sum of thirty-two dollars and fifty cents ($32.50) multiplied by the average number of girls, respectively, from each of said counties and said City at said school during the said quarter; the intention of this provision being that while the levy shall be made annually upon the estimated number based on the said apportionment according to the census of population in the respective Counties and City of Baltimore, quarterly payments shall be made for the actual number of girls at said school from each of said Counties and City, respectively. Any balance from said levy at the end of the year shall revert to the treasury of said County or said City, and
