

residence of such person to be registered in a book kept by it for that purpose, and shall issue to such person a certificate of registration, as evidence of his eligibility to practice dentistry, signed by the officers of the Board and sealed with its official seal, which certificate shall also state the name of the person to whom issued, and the date of such issuance.

The Board may, in its discretion, register without examination and issue a certificate (permanently or until the next regular meeting of the Board) to any person who has been graduated and admitted to the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery or equivalent degree by any university or college incorporated and authorized to grant such degree by the laws of the United States, or any of its territories, districts or possessions, or by the laws of any State of the United States, and who has been duly registered and licensed to practice dentistry by a Board of Dental Examiners created and existing under the laws of the United States, or any of its territories, districts or possessions, or under the laws of any State of the United States.

Students of dentistry at a recognized college of dentistry who have completed their third year of study, and who may be certified by the dean of the college at which they are in attendance as having satisfactorily completed certain subjects which are included in the examination given by the Board, may on application be admitted by said Board to its regular examination upon such subjects, and upon passing such examination shall be deemed to have absolved the requirements of the Board in such subjects.

This section is constitutional. Word "may" in fifth line, construed must. Applicants only to be examined on their qualifications for practicing dentistry. This section does not create an arbitrary classification. Indictment valid. State v. Knowles. 90 Md. 653. (Decided prior to act of 1920, ch. 481).

An. Code, sec. 6. 1904, sec. 6. 1888, sec. 7. 1896, ch. 378, sec. 6. 1920, ch. 481, sec. 5.

5. A fee of $20 shall be paid to secretary of the Board at the time of application by each applicant for examination, or registration, or both, as often as he or she shall apply for same; provided, however, that the fee for a temporary certificate, if issued, shall be $5.00; and provided further that payment of said fee of $20.00 by a dental student who may apply for examination upon certain subjects as provided in Section 4 hereof shall entitle him or her to take the examination upon the remainder of the prescribed subjects, no part of said fee to be refunded under any circumstances.

1920, ch. 481, sec. 6.

6. The fees collected by the Board shall be used to defray the cost of executing and enforcing the provisions of this Article, including a salary to the Secretary as fixed by the Board and a per diem to each member of the Board of $25.00 for every day he is actually employed in the discharge of his official duties, necessary expenses of the Secretary and members in the performance of their official duties, and such other expenses as the Board shall deem necessary in carrying out the purposes of this Article. The Secretary shall receive and disburse all moneys of the Board, and shall account for the same to the State Comptroller in the month of December in each and every year; and should the amount in his hands as of December
