

illegal vote or to aid another in so doing, and any person who shall in any way willfully violate any of the provisions of this sub-title, and any person who shall fail or refuse to perform any duty imposed upon him by the provisions of this sub-title, and any person who shall apply for a ballot under any other name than his own, shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $1,000 or be sentenced to the penitentiary for not more than two years, or be sentenced to both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. In all other respects the penalties provided in Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Elections," and any amendments thereto, shall apply.

Referendum.

237. The costs of publishing in newspapers any laws upon which a referendum vote shall be taken under the provisions of Article 16 of the Constitution shall be paid as follows: If said law is submitted to the voters of the entire State, by the Secretary of State out of funds appropriated for said purpose by the General Assembly in the Budget Bill; if said law is submitted to the voters of any county of the State, by the Board of County Commissioners of said county, and if said law is submitted to the voters of the City of Baltimore, by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

238. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to keep in his office a record of all referendum votes taken by the voters of the State or any county therein, or the City of Baltimore upon any law passed at any session of the General Assembly of the State, whether regular or extraordinary, and in addition thereto, the Secretary of State shall, within ten days from the receipt of the official returns from any such referendum vote, prepare under his hand and seal, two certificates setting forth the particular law upon which such referendum vote was taken, and the result of said vote; one of said certificates he shall forthwith deliver to the Clerk of the Court of Appeals who shall, upon receipt of the same, attach it to the original copy of said law and file in his office; the remaining certificate shall be retained by the Secretary of State until the adjournment of the next succeeding session of the General Assembly, whether regular or extraordinary, and shall thereupon be delivered by him to the person selected by the Governor to compile and index the laws passed at such session of the General Assembly.
