

sections 119 to 123, to keep a strict account of the number of eels caught under the provisions of said sections, and the manner by which they are so caught.

An. Code, sec. 105. 1904, sec. 96. 1888, sec. 85. 1888, ch. 497, sec. 4.

122. It shall be the duty of said fish commissioners, their employees, and all other persons engaged in enforcing the provisions of sections 119 to 123, to kill and destroy all eels which may be caught as aforesaid, and prepare for market, and cause to be sold at the greatest possible price, all such eels so as aforesaid caught; an account of which sales they shall keep accurately and fully, and apply the proceeds thereof in devising the most effective ways and means in their best judgment in catching, destroying and preparing for sale as aforesaid all eels which may be caught as hereinbefore directed; and if there should be any surplus after said allowance and expenses, the same shall be retained and kept by the said fish commissioners in part payment of their respective salaries under the laws of this State.

An. Code, sec. 106. 1904, sec. 97. 1888, sec. 86. 1888, ch. 497, sec. 5.

123. If the said fish commissioners or their said employes should refuse to carry out and enforce the provisions of sections 119 to 123, then it shall be the duty of the governor of this State to investigate the cause of said refusal, and if, after said investigation, the said governor should find the said refusal to be intentional, unreasonable and without cause, then it shall be the duty of the said governor at once to remove said officer or employe so refusing and appoint another who will enforce the provisions of said sections.

An. Code, sec. 107. 1904, sec. 98. 1888, sec. 87. 1874, ch. 150, sec. 4. 1876, ch. 47.

124. It shall be the duty of said commissioners to make an annual report to the governor, of the work accomplished by the commission, and also embracing such suggestions for the protection and propagation of food fishes in the waters of this State as may be the result of their observation and experience; which report the governor shall cause to be printed, and transmit the same to the general assembly of the State.

As to the state fishery force, see art. 72, sec. 36, et seq.

An. Code, sec. 108. 1904, sec. 99. 1888, sec. 88. 1874, ch. 150, sec. 5.

125. The salaries of said commissioners shall be fifteen hundred dollars per annum each; and the sum of three thousand dollars per annum is hereby appropriated to pay the said salaries.

An. Code, sec. 109. 1904, sec. 100. 1888, sec. 89. 1874, ch. 150, sec. 6. 1876, ch. 47.
1890, ch. 189.

126. The further sum of ten thousand dollars per annum, or so much thereof as may in the opinion of the governor be necessary, is appropriated for the purpose of enabling said commissioners to carry out the provisions of sections 117, 119 and 124, and the comptroller shall issue his warrant
