

General Laws of Maryland (Bagby's Code) so far as said insolvent law is not superseded by the Federal Bankrupt Law; nor the law relating to fraudulent conveyances from husband to wife as contained in Article 45, Sections 1, 2 and 11 of said Code; nor the provisions of Article 16, Section 48 of said Code relating to the method of establishing the creditors' claim; nor the provisions of the Act of 1912, Chapter 451 and of the Act of 1916, Chapter 371, relating to sales in bulk.