An. Code, sec. 288. 1914, ch. 810, sec. 20.

347. The State Board of Health shall be empowered to employ and fix the compensation of such experts, engineers, clerical and other assistants as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this sub-title. Provided, however, that all the expenses, for salaries or otherwise, incurred under the provisions of this sub-title shall not exceed in the aggregate the amount appropriated by this sub-title.

An. Code, sec. 289. 1914, ch. 810, sec. 21.

348. For the purpose of making effective the provisions of this sub-title, the sum of $25,000, annually, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, payable by the Treasurer of the State upon the warrant of the Comptroller, at such times and in such sums as may be authorized by the State Board of Health upon presentation of the proper vouchers.

Osteopathy.

An. Code, sec. 290. 1914, ch. 786.

349. There shall be established a Board of Osteopathic Examiners for the State of Maryland. The Board shall consist of five members, and each of said members shall serve for a term of three years from the first day of June, next after his appointment, or until his successor is appointed, with the exception of those first appointed, who shall serve as follows: namely, two for one year, two for two years, and one for three years, from the first day of June, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and fourteen. Each member of the said board shall be a graduate of a legally incorporated and reputable college of osteopathy and shall have been licensed to practice osteopathy under the laws of this State, excepting in the case of the first board, which shall be appointed as provided for in Section 351,—and shall not be in any manner financially interested in, or connected with the faculty or management of any osteopathic school or college, and shall have been engaged in the practice of osteopathy in this State for a period of at least three years.

As to practitioners of medicine, see sec. 115, et seq. See notes to sec. 357.
