

iners, said board shall fill the same until the next annual meeting of the Board of Medical Examiners of Maryland, when said latter Board shall elect an examiner to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term.

An. Code, sec. 306. 1916, ch. 173, sec. 3. 1924, ch. 589, sec. 306.

365. The Board of Chiropractic Examiners, for the purpose of examining applicants under this sub-title for a license to practice chiropractic in this State, shall hold two meetings in each year, at such times and places as the Board may determine. Such notice of the times and places of such examinations shall be given as to the Board may seem proper. The Board may make and adopt such rules and regulations in connection with the conduct of such examinations as may, in the judgment of the said Board be necessary to carry out the purposes of this sub-title. It shall provide such books, blanks and forms as may be necessary in order to conduct said examinations, and shall keep and preserve a complete record of all its transactions. No license to practice chiropractic shall be granted by the Board unless at least three members of the Board vote in favor of granting such license. All examinations shall be conducted by the Board in writing, but the Board, in its discretion, may use supplementary oral examinations. The examinations shall be in the following subjects: Anatomy and physiology of the foot, therapeutics and minor surgery and asepsis. After such examination the Board shall, without unnecessary delay, act upon same, and shall issue a certificate to the successful candidates. An official report of such action, signed by each member of the Board, and the result of the examination shall be preserved by the said Board. The Board of Chiropractic Examiners shall report annually to the Board of Medical Examiners of Maryland in detail all of their transactions.

An. Code, sec. 307. 1916, ch. 173, sec. 4.

366. Every person receiving a certificate from said board shall file the same at once with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county in which he or she may now reside or with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to register the name of said person and the names of the examiners signing said certificate in a book kept for such purpose as a part of the records of his office and the number of the book and the page therein containing said recorded copy shall be made by the said Clerk upon the face of said certificate, which shall be his license to practice chiropractic. In all legal proceedings said records shall be prima facie evidence of all matters therein contained. The fees for such registration shall be fifty cents to be paid by the person whose certificate is registered.

An. Code, sec. 308. 1916, ch. 173, sec. 5.

367. Applicants certified or licensed by the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners of other States, Territories or the District of Columbia, on the payment of a fee of Twenty-five Dollars to the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, and on filing with the Board of Chiropractic Examiners a copy of said license, certified by the affidavit of one of the members of said board,
