

stitution and Laws of the State or the United States, which shall have the force and effect of law, and all violations of which shall be punished as misdemeanors are punished at common law; and where such powers and duties are by law conferred or laid on other governmental agencies the State Board of Agriculture and such other governmental agencies may co-operate in the execution and performance thereof, and when so co-operating each shall be vested with such authority as is now or may hereafter by law be conferred on the other. The powers and duties herein recited shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any power and duties which now are or hereafter may be conferred or laid upon said Board.

An. Code, sec. 8. 1916, ch. 391, sec. 8.

8. The State Board of Agriculture shall make a written report to the General Assembly of Maryland at the beginning of its regular sessions of the work performed by it and of its receipts and expenditures, and of such other matters as the Governor shall direct; and shall also make reports to the Governor at such times and upon such matters as he shall direct.

An. Code, sec. 9. 1916, ch. 391, sec. 9.

9. The State Board of Agriculture is empowered to call upon all sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, policemen and other officers of the City of Baltimore, or of any County, for information and assistance to carry out and enforce the provisions of its rules and regulations and it shall be the duty of all such named officers to obey and observe all orders and instructions which they may receive from said Board for the enforcement of all the provisions of this Article within their respective jurisdictions, and they shall be paid as for the performance of similar duties under existing laws.

An. Code, sec. 10. 1916, ch. 391, sec. 10.

10. It shall be the duty of all State's Attorneys to prosecute all persons accused of violating the provisions of this Article.

An. Code, sec. 11. 1916, ch. 551.

11. The assent of the State of Maryland is hereby given to the purposes, provisions and requirements of the grant made by said Act, H. R. No. 7951 of the Second Session of the Sixty-third Congress, approved by the President May 8, 1914, and the Maryland Agricultural College is hereby designated as the institution entitled to receive the benefits of the said Act and the Trustees of the said Maryland Agricultural College are hereby authorized and empowered to receive the grants of money appropriated under said Act and to organize and conduct the Agricultural Extension work which shall be carried on in connection with said College or the State of Maryland in accordance with the terms and conditions expressed in the Act of Congress aforesaid.

The assent of the State of Maryland to the grants of money for the purposes, upon the terms and in accordance with the several conditions and provisions contained in said Act, is hereby signified and expressed