Ordinary Keeper.

An. Code, sec. 72. 1904, sec. 72. 1888, sec. 67. 1858, ch. 414, sec. 5. 1862, ch. 119.

85. If any person or body politic shall propose to open or keep an ordinary, he shall apply to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which said applicant may reside; or, if he reside in the city of Baltimore, to the clerk of the court of common pleas for a license therefore; under which license spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer may be bartered or sold in quantities less than a pint.

While boundaries of a municipality bordering on navigable waters may be extended for purposes of jurisdiction by building wharves, etc., permanently filled in with earth, or by natural accretions, this is not true of floating pavilions or piers fastened to docks. Hence no license from Baltimore City is necessary for sale of liquor from such a pavilion or pier floating beyond jurisdiction of city, upon Patapsco River. Treuth v. State, 120 Md. 257.
