

Additional License Fees for the State.

An. Code, sec. 89A. 1916, ch. 594.

104. The license fees now provided by law for the issuing of licenses for the sale, by retail or wholesale, as the case may be, in each of the counties, cities (including the City of Baltimore), towns and villages of this State, of distilled, fermented, spirituous or malt liquors, or any mixture thereof, shall be increased in each of the following cases by the following amounts:

Each saloon or restaurant, in addition to the license fee now required, shall pay an additional One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each year.

Each wholesale liquor dealer or jobber, in addition to the license fee now required, shall pay an additional One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each year.

Each bottler, in addition to the license fee now required, shall pay an additional One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) each year.

Each hotel having not more than two hundred rooms, in addition to the license fee now required, shall pay an additional Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250.00) each year.

Each hotel having more than two hundred rooms, in addition to the license fee now required, shall pay an additional Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) each year.

The additional license fees hereby provided for shall be due and payable at the same time or times that the license fees now existing are by law required to be paid in each of the counties, cities (including the City of Baltimore), towns and villages of this State, and shall be payable to the same local officials, and shall be subject to the same penalties for non-payment, and shall be disposed of as other license fees now provided by law for the issue of licenses for the sale by retail or wholesale, as the case may be, of distilled or spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or any mixture thereof.

Provided, however, that the additional license fees hereby imposed shall be due and payable on the 15th day of June, 1916, for the period from that date down to the next succeeding date when licenses are required to be obtained and issued, in the cases aforesaid, in the several counties, cities (including the City of Baltimore), towns and villages; and thereafter the additional license fees hereby imposed shall be due and payable at the same time or times that the license fees now existing are by law required to be paid.

See notes to art. 3, sec. 29 of the Md. Constitution.

Oyster or Eating Houses.

An. Code, sec. 90. 1904, sec. 90. 1888, sec. 82. 1858, ch. 414, sec. 6.

105. If any person shall purpose to open, set up or keep an oyster-house, cook-shop, victualling-house or lager beer saloon, or any place other than an ordinary at or in which spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer may be sold or bartered in less quantities than a pint at any one time, he shall apply to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which
