

there is reason to believe that any person is wrongfully deprived of his or her liberty, or had been cruelly, improperly or negligently treated in any place or institution or almshouse; but in all cases in which said Board shall take action or determine any question affecting any insane person or persons supposed to be insane, or any institution in which such insane or supposed insane person is confined, the managers of said institution shall have the same right to appeal from said action or determination of said Board as is now allowed by law in cases instituted before justices of the peace of the State; the Board shall be empowered to present the offenders before the grand jury of the city or county in which such offense may have occurred.

An. Code, sec. 23. 1904, sec. 23. 1888, sec. 23. 1886, ch. 487, sec. 24.
1910, ch. 715, sec. 23 (p. 188).

An. Code, sec. 24. 1904, sec. 24. 1888, sec. 24. 1886, ch. 487, sec. 25.

25. They shall be authorized to require a written report from all institutions, public, corporate and private, including almshouses, in which the insane or idiotic may be kept; said report to be in such form and at such time as they may adopt and to contain such statement of facts concerning the treatment of the insane, as they may require.

An. Code, sec. 25. 1904, sec. 25. 1888, sec. 25. 1886, ch. 487, sec. 26.
1910, ch. 715, sec. 25 (p. 189).

26. Any officer or other person in charge of the insane or feeble-minded who may refuse to comply with any of the provisions of sections 22, 25, 27, 32, 33, 34, 39 and 40 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction of same, shall be fined or imprisoned, in the judgment of the court before which the case may be tried.

An. Code, sec. 26. 1904, sec. 26. 1888, sec. 26. 1886, ch. 487, sec. 27.

27. The superintendent or other officer or keeper of any institution, public, corporate or private, or almshouse where the insane may be kept shall be required to keep a report of all patients, in such form as the Board shall direct; also a record in which shall be entered the incidents and accidents that may occur, also the number and kind of restraints used, with details of the same, to be reported to the Board.
