

examination held under this Article; no person shall, by himself or in co-operation with one or more persons, wilfully or corruptly defeat, deceive, or obstruct any person in respect to his right of examination under the provisions of this Article or falsely mark, grade, estimate or report upon the examination or standing of any person examined hereunder, or aid in so doing, or furnish to any person except in answer to inquiries of the Commissioner any special information for the purpose of either improving or injuring the rating of any such person for appointment or employment. No applicant shall deceive the Commissioner for the purpose of improving his chances or prospects for appointment. No person shall use or promise to use his influence or official authority to secure any appointment or prospect of appointment to any position classified under this Article as a reward or return for personal or partisan political service. No public officer or employee, whether in the classified service or not shall, by means of threats or coercion, induce or attempt to induce any person holding a position in the classified service to resign his position or to take leave of absence from duty or to waive any of his rights under this Article. No person about to be appointed to any position classified shall sign or execute a resignation dated or undated in advance of such appointment. Any such resignation shall be of no effect.

24. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Article or of the rules of the Commissioner, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) and not more than three thousand ($3,000.00) or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

1920, ch. 41, sec. 25.

25. Whenever the State's Attorney for the City of Baltimore or the county in which an offense under this Article is alleged to have been committed shall refuse to prosecute any person alleged to have committed such an offense, or shall fail to prosecute such person after the alleged offense is brought to his attention, then any citizen may apply to any judge of a NISI PRUIS court of such city or county for the appointment of a special attorney to conduct a prosecution of such person or persons, and upon such application the court may appoint some competent attorney to prosecute the person or persons alleged to have committed the offense, and the special attorney so appointed shall have the same power and authority in relation to any such prosecution as the State's Attorney would or might have had if such special attorney had not been appointed.

26. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to begin and conduct all civil suits which may be necessary for the proper enforcement of this Article and of the rules of the Commissioner and to defend all civil suits which may be brought against the Commissioner. The Commissioner
