

to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, for the first offense. For any subsequent offense the fine shall be not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars. In default of payment of a fine and costs, the defendant shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the prison of the county, or in Baltimore City, where such offense was committed, for not less than ten days, and not more than thirty days. All fines shall be paid by the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace to the Board, and by it paid into the State Treasury.

1922, ch. 390, sec. 20A.

21. Any person who shall exhibit in public any misbranded film or film carrying official approval of the Board which approval was not put there by the action of the Board, or any person who shall attach to or use in connection with any film or view which has not been approved and licensed by the Maryland State Board of Censors, any certificate or statement in the form provided by Section 7 hereof or any similar certificate, statement or writing, or any person who shall exhibit any folder, poster, picture or other advertising matter, which folder, poster, picture or other advertising matter is obscene, indecent, sacrilegious, inhuman or immoral, or which tends to unduly excite or deceive the public, or containing any matter not therein contained when the approval was granted by the Board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction summarily before a Justice of the Peace, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or imprisonment for not over thirty days, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the said Justice of the Peace. In addition to the above penalties, the Board may also seize and confiscate any misbranded film.

In all cases arising under this section there may be an appeal from the decision of the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace where the fine imposed is in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00), or where the penalty imposed includes any term of imprisonment whatever.

1922, ch. 390, sec. 21.

22. If any person shall fail to display or exhibit on the screen the approval seal, as issued by the Board, of a film or view, which has been approved, and is convicted summarily before any Magistrate, or Justice of the Peace, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five dollars and not more than ten dollars; in default of payment of a fine and costs, the defendant shall be sentenced to imprisonment, in the prison of the county, or in Baltimore City, where such offense was committed, for not less than two days and not more than five days.
