

The State Conservation Commission of Maryland shall not expend more than eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) of the funds derived from the fees provided for in Sections 81 and 82 of this Article in planting oyster shells and in transplanting small oysters.

1922, ch. 279, sec. 2.

83. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. In case any section or provision of sections 81 and 82 shall be held unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not be held to affect any other provision of said sections.

An. Code, sec. 72. 1904, sec. 70. 1894, ch. 380, sec. 59. 1900, ch. 380. 1906, ch. 188, sec. 70. 1916, ch. 702, sec. 72.

84. At the beginning of each oyster season the Conservation Commission shall divide the inspection points in Baltimore City into four inspection districts and organize the board of inspectors provided for the City of Baltimore in section 80 of this article, and all general measurers and inspectors provided in said section 80 shall be assigned to and remain during the whole season at the specific points to which they are assigned, subject, however, to the discretion of the Commission; and the Commission shall have general control and supervision over all general measurers and inspectors and special inspectors; and the said general measurers and inspectors and special inspectors are hereby required to report to the Commission whenever required, and if they shall refuse or neglect to make such report they shall be fined for each said failure or refusal the sum of ten dollars, to be deducted from their salaries, and the said Commission shall have the power to transfer any general measurer and inspector or any special inspector from any house or district whenever it may deem it best for the good of the service to enforce the proper inspection, the cull law and the collection of the tax for the oyster fund. In addition to the certificates required by Sections 81 and 82 hereof, every packer or commission merchant buying oysters in the State of Maryland shall furnish to the special inspector of his district a weekly report under oath showing the number of bushels, bags or barrels of oysters purchased by him during the preceding week. Every packer or canner of oysters, and every person selling oysters on commission, when taking out a license at the beginning of the oyster season as required by Sections 91 and 94 of Article 72, shall make oath that he will furnish such weekly reports showing correct number of oysters purchased by him during the preceding week. The said oaths may be made before any general measurer and inspector or special measurer, each of whom is hereby authorized and directed to administer such oaths without charge, or before any notary public or justice of the peace.

An. Code, sec. 73. 1904, sec. 71. 1894, ch. 380, sec. 60. 1900, ch. 380. 1906, ch. 188, sec. 71.

85. It shall be the duty of said general measurers and inspectors of oysters to see that the law in reference to the inspection of oysters be strictly complied with by all subordinates, and the general measurers and
