

the State of Maryland, or his assistants in any matters pertaining to the enforcement of this Article.

1924, ch. 585, sec. 13.

13. Nothing in this Article shall be taken or construed to in any way invalidate or otherwise affect any certificate as certified public accountant held by any person issued under the authority of any previously existing law of the State of Maryland, and which certificate shall be in force and effect on June 1, 1924.