

kept with care and accuracy, and unless all reports required by the county superintendent of schools have been properly made and submitted.

A teacher who has been wrongfully removed and holds herself in readiness to teach is entitled to compensation if she was unable to obtain other employment. Underwood v. School Commissioners, 103 Md. 190.

An. Code, sec. 60. 1908, ch. 635, sec. 122½E. 1910, ch. 420, sec. 122½E (p. 226).
1916, ch. 506, sec. 60. 1918, ch. 106, sec. 60. 1920, ch. 118, sec. 60.
1922, ch. 382, sec. 60.

90. No white teacher regularly employed in a public school of the State of Maryland shall receive a salary of less than six hundred dollars ($600) per school year. Provided, if such teacher holds a third grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than six hundred and fifty dollars ($650) per school year.

No white teacher regularly employed in a public school of the State of Maryland, holding a second grade certificate, shall receive a salary of less than seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750) per school year. Provided, if such a teacher holds a second grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than eight hundred dollars ($800) per school year. Provided, if such teacher holds a second grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of five years such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than eight hundred and fifty dollars ($850) per school year.

No white teacher regularly employed in a public school of the State of Maryland, holding a first grade certificate, shall receive a salary of less than nine hundred and fifty dollars ($950) per school year. Provided, if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than one thousand and fifty dollars ($1,050) per school year. Provided, further, if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of five years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than eleven hundred dollars ($1,100) per school year. Provided, further, if such a teacher holds a first grade certificate of the first class and has taught in the public schools of the State of Maryland for a period of eight years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than eleven hundred and fifty dollars ($1,150) per school year; and provided, further, that such teacher holding a first grade certificate, and serving as principal of a one or two teacher school, shall receive at least one hundred dollars ($100) a year more than the amount required for such teacher by the foregoing schedule.

No white elementary school principal holding an elementary school principal's certificate, and serving as principal of a school having three or more teachers, including the principal, shall receive a salary of less than eleven hundred and fifty dollars ($1,150) per school year; provided, that if such principal holds an elementary school principal's certificate of the first class,