

provided, be entitled to receive the allowance prescribed in the preceding section for members entering the service of the State as teachers after the passage of this Act, and such additional allowance from the State as may be determined by the retirement board, the same to be paid as provided in the preceding section; but his total annuity hereunder shall not exceed one-half his average annual salary throughout his entire period of active service in the State.

106. A member of the retirement association, who shall have been a teacher in the public schools or in educational institutions supported and controlled by the State, at least six years, and who shall become totally and permanently disabled to teach, as determined upon examination by physicians approved by the retirement board, shall receive an annuity based upon the accumulated sum of his contributions and the contributions of the State, with interest, calculated on the basis of McClintock's table of mortality among annuitants and three and a half per cent interest, with such additional annual allowance from the State as the retirement board, in the exercise of sound discretion, shall deem equitable, the same being limited by his earning capacity in other occupations, such additional allowance to be continued so long, and in such amount, as the retirement board may determine; provided, however, that in no event shall the total sum received annually by such member, under this section, including his annuity and the additional allowance above provided for, exceed half of his average annual salary throughout his entire period of service as determined by the retirement board.

If such retiring member should die before receiving in the form of an annuity all of the accumulations up to the time of his disability from his own and the State's annual contributions on his account, the balance shall be paid to his or her legal representatives, as he or she may elect, subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the retirement board.

107. (1) Any member of the retirement association withdrawing from service in the public schools of the State, or any education institution supported and controlled by the State, by resignation or dismissal, before becoming eligible to retirement under the provisions of this subtitle, shall be entitled to receive from the annuity fund all amounts contributed thereto as assessments, and, if at the time of such withdrawal, such member shall have served in the public schools of the State or in any educational institutions supported and controlled by the State, six years or more, he shall be entitled to receive, in addition, the contributions made by the State on his account as hereinbefore provided, but if dismissed, he should not receive the State's contribution.

(2) In case of the death of such member under the circumstances above set forth, the several amounts to which he would be entitled, if living, shall be paid to a surviving husband or wife, or to the legal representatives
