

1920, ch. 509, sec. 19.

111. The retirement board shall cause the system hereby established to be thoroughly examined by a competent actuary or actuaries, once in every three years, and oftener if deemed necessary, and may call an actuary in consultation at any time; and such board is hereby empowered to change the scale of contributions required of teachers, if deemed advisable as the result of actuarial experience hereunder; but such changes shall not be effective as to teachers becoming members of the retirement association before the same shall have been made; unless assented to by such members.

1920, ch. 509, sec. 20.

112. The accounts of the retirement board and the books and accounts of the State Treasurer as custodian of the funds of the retirement system, and the cash and securities in his hands representing such funds, shall be examined and audited annually at the time and in the manner prescribed for the annual audit of the accounts of the trustees of the permanent school fund and the accounts of the State Treasurer in connection therewith.

1920, ch. 509, sec. 21.

113. The rules and regulations hereby prescribed for the administration of the retirement system hereby created, shall be subject to change by the retirement board whenever deemed to be for the best interests of the entire body of teachers in the service of the State. The benefits of the retirement system shall be enjoyed by each member of the retirement association as long as he meets all the requirements of this sub-title and complies with all the rules and regulations of the retirement board.
