

An. Code, sec. 78A. 1918, ch. 473.

151. The county superintendent of schools as treasurer of the county board of education in the several counties is hereby authorized and directed to deposit daily all public funds and moneys which shall come into his hands for or on account of the public schools, in such bank, banks, or banking institutions in his county which will agree to pay the highest rate of interest, in no case to be less than 2% per annum, compounded semi-annually, upon the daily balances, such bank, banks, or banking institutions to be selected and designated by the county board of education of said county. The interest received on the deposits shall be credited semi-annually to the school funds and become a part of said funds to be accounted for by the superintendent of schools in the same manner as the other school funds.

Chapter 12. The State Normal Schools.

An. Code, sec. 82. 1904, sec. 77. 1888, sec. 70. 1872, ch. 377. 1898, ch. 406. 1904, ch. 584. 1914, ch. 124. 1916, ch. 506, sec. 82.

152. The state board of education and the state superintendent of schools shall be the board of trustees of each of the normal schools maintained and supported by the State: the state normal school at Towson, the state normal school at Frostburg and the state normal school at Bowie.

An. Code, sec. 83. 1904, sec. 78. 1888, sec. 71. 1872, ch. 377. 1898, ch. 221. 1900, ch. 428. 1904, ch. 584. 1916, ch. 506, sec. 83.

153. The board of trustees shall exercise general supervision of the expenditure of all money appropriated by the General Assembly for the erection of buildings or additions, for repairs, up-keep, maintenance and support of these schools, and shall have control and supervision of their management and work. The board of trustees shall authorize all departments of instruction and all positions, and shall fix the salaries and tenure of all teachers, and all assistants of whatever kind; they may dismiss any teacher or any assistant for immorality, dishonesty, misconduct in office, incompetency, insubordination and wilful neglect of duty, but no teacher or professional assistant may be dismissed without being given a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard, in person or by counsel, in his own defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. The board of trustees shall authorize the course or the courses of study to be offered, including courses for observation and practice in teaching. They shall prescribe the entrance requirements, subject to the provisions of this article, to the different departments and courses of study; shall determine the number of students to be admitted from the city of Baltimore, and each of the several counties, provided that students of both sexes shall be admitted; they shall regulate the length of the regular sessions, provided that it shall not be less than nine months; they shall provide and arrange for summer sessions, and shall formulate rules and regulations for the conduct and management of these schools.
