1910, ch. 505, sec. 114 (p. 226).

187. All real estate acquired for the use and benefit of any library and reading room, established as aforesaid, and all property that shall be a part of any such library and reading room shall be exempt from all State, county and municipal taxation.

As to exemptions from taxation, see art. 81, sec. 4.

Chapter 16. The City of Baltimore.

An. Code, sec. 121. 1904, sec. 116. 1888, sec. 88. 1872, ch. 377. 1884, ch. 2.

188. The mayor and city council of Baltimore shall have full power and authority to establish in said city a system of free public schools, which shall include a school or schools for manual or industrial training, under such ordinances, rules and regulations as they may deem fit and proper to enact and prescribe; they may delegate supervisory powers and control to a board of school commissioners; may prescribe rules for building school houses, and locating, establishing and closing schools, and may in general do every act that may be necessary or proper in the premises.

The act of 1892, ch. 341, specifically prescribes method by which county school commissioners ought to be appointed, but nowhere in this article is the method for appointment of school commissioners in Baltimore city designated. This section gives to city the whole of state's power over public schools in the city (subject, of course, to state's right of repeal), and does not take from the city any power it
