

the approval of the State Superintendent of Schools. Regulations regarding the size and arrangement of the building, and its fitness for high school work, the amount and character of equipment and supplies, and the necessary library and laboratories, shall be made by the State Board of Education; and State aid shall not be allowed on account of the employment of any teacher unless the department to which such teacher is assigned is adequately equipped and the quality of instruction is satisfactory.

No person shall be employed in any approved high school as principal or assistant teacher who does not hold the appropriate certificate as provided for in Chapter 8, Section 83, of this Article.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the organization of junior high schools comprising the higher elementary grades and one or two of the high school grades; and such schools when organized according to regulations of the State Board of Education, and satisfactorily administered, may receive State aid on the basis of the amount high school instruction given.

See notes to secs. 90 and 192.

An. Code, sec. 126A. 1914, ch. 82. 1916, ch. 506, sec. 126A.

194. To encourage the idea that no person should enter upon the duties of teaching without special training for the work, the county board of education of any county, with the approval of the state superintendent of schools, may inaugurate in one approved high school of the first group, a two years' teachers' training course for students having completed successfully the tenth year grade, and who wish to prepare themselves for teaching. The state board of education shall prescribe the course and all necessary regulations to make the work of the course effective.

1920, ch. 118, sec. 126B. 1922, ch. 382, sec. 126B.

195. No white high school teacher regularly employed in the public high schools of the State of Maryland shall receive a salary of less than eleven hundred and fifty dollars ($1,150) per school year, provided that if such teacher holds a high school teacher's certificate of the first class, and has taught in an approved high school of the State of Maryland for a period of one year, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) per school year; provided, further, if such teacher holds a high school teacher's certificate of the first class, and has taught in an approved high school of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than one thousand two hundred and fifty dollars ($1,250) per school year; provided, further, if such teacher holds a high school teacher's certificate of the first class, and has taught in an approved high school of the State of Maryland for a period of five years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than one thousand three hundred dollars ($1,300) per school year; and provided, further, if such teacher holds a high school teacher's certificate of the first class and has taught in an approved high school of the State of Maryland for a period of seven years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than one thousand three hundred and fifty dollars ($1,350) per school year.