254. The supervisors of assessments shall confer frequently with the State Tax Commission, and submit questions for determination to that Commission, and shall receive instructions for their guidance in the supervision of the valuation and assessment of properties, both real and personal, and keep constantly informed what supervisors of assessments in other parts of the State are doing.

The supervisors shall be furnished an office at the County seat by the County Commissioners of each County, and by the Mayor in Baltimore City, and allowed such clerical help as the County Commissioners or Mayor of Baltimore City, respectively, shall determine; and the State Tax Commission shall determine, by a general and uniform rule, what data and information, if any, is not open for public inspection. This sub-title is not intended to impose any limitation on the power of local bodies to employ assessors.

An. Code, sec. 241. 1914, ch. 841, sec. 240.

255. The salary of the supervisors shall be paid by the several Counties and shall be based on the aggregate value of property subject to taxation under his supervision. In those Counties where the total value of all property shall not exceed $5,000,000, he shall receive an annual salary of $600. If the aggregate value shall be over $5,000,000 and less than $10,000,000, he shall receive $800.

If over $10,000,000 and less than $20,000,000—$1,000.

If over 20,000,000 and less than 30,000,000— 1,200.

If over 30,000,000 and less than 50,000,000— 1,500.

If over 50,000,000 and less than 75,000,000— 1,800.

If over 75,000,000 and less than 100,000,000— 2,000.

And if over $100,000,000 he shall receive $2,400.

The supervisor in Baltimore City shall be paid $2,400.

Such salary shall be payable monthly and the County Commissioners of each County and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore are hereby directed to raise such sum annually as will pay said salaries, and in case the expenditures for any County or Baltimore City have been fully computed on May 29, 1914, then the County Commissioners of said County or the proper officials in Baltimore City shall be required to provide in the next levy for the payment of the salary from the date of the supervisor taking office.

An. Code, sec. 242. 1914, ch. 841, sec. 241.

256. That State Tax Commission shall adopt a seal and shall keep a full record of its proceedings, and have the power to make rules, orders and
