

Default in bond to protect purchaser under sales in bulk act. Fidelity & Dep. Co. of Md. v. Thomas, 133 Md. 272.

Secs. 100 to 103 apparently impliedly repeal secs. 19 to 21.

As to fraudulent conveyances, see art. 39B.

An. Code, sec. 101. 1912, ch. 451, sec. 99. 1914, ch. 409, sec. 99.

101. After having received from the vendor the written statement under oath mentioned in Section 100, the vendee shall at least five days before the consummation of the bargain or purchase and at least five days before paying or delivering to the vendor any part of the purchase price or consideration thereof, or any promissory note, or other evidence of indebtedness for the same in good faith, notify or cause to be notified personally, or by registered letter, each of the creditors of the vendor named in the statement of the proposed purchase by him of such stock of goods, wares, or merchandise; and whenever any person shall purchase any stock of goods, wares, or merchandise in bulk, or shall pay the purchase price or any part thereof, without having first demanded and received from his vendor the statement under oath as provided in Section 100, and without having notified or cause to be notified all of the creditors of the vendor named in such statement as in the Section presented, such purchase, sale or transfer shall, to any and all subsisting creditors of the vendor, be void.

Secs. 100 to 103 apparently impliedly repeal secs. 19 to 21.

An. Code, sec. 102. 1912, ch. 451, sec. 100.

102. Any sale or transfer of a stock of goods, wares or merchandise out of the usual or ordinary course of the business in the trade of the vendor, or whenever thereby substantially the entire business trade theretofore conducted by the vendor shall be sold or conveyed, or attempted to be sold or conveyed, to one or more persons, shall be deemed a sale or transfer in bulk, in contemplation of this law.

Secs. 100 to 103 apparently impliedly repeal secs. 19 to 21.

An. Code, sec. 103. 1912, ch. 451, sec. 101.

103. Nothing contained in the foregoing sections shall apply to sales made by executors, administrators, receivers or any public officer conducting a sale in his official capacity, nor to any deed of trust executed for the benefit of the creditors.

Secs. 100 to 103 apparently impliedly repeal secs. 19 to 21.

An. Code, sec. 104. 1916, ch. 371.

104. Any vendor of a stock of goods, wares or merchandise under the provisions of Section 100 of this Article, who shall knowingly and willfully make, or deliver, or cause to be made or delivered any statement required by said Section, of which any material portion is false, or shall knowingly and willfully fail to include the names of all the creditors of said vendor and the amounts due each in said statement, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both in the discretion of the Court.
