An. Code, sec. 305. 1904, sec. 301. 1888, sec. 295. 1798, ch. 101, sub-ch. 13, sec. 5.

314. But if in effect nothing shall pass by such devise, she shall not be thereby barred whether she shall or shall not renounce as aforesaid, it being the intent of this article, and consonant to justice, that a widow accepting or abiding by devise, in lieu of her legal right, shall be considered as a purchaser with a fair consideration.

A widow is only to be regarded as a purchaser to extent of value of share she would have taken if she had renounced. Chew v. Farmers' Bank, 2 Md. Ch. 231; Thomas v. Wood, 1 Md. Ch. 300; Hall's Case, 1 Bl. 205.

Since widow is a purchaser under this section, a devise to her, if it does not exceed what she would be entitled to at common law, will not abate to pay debts in favor of specific legatees. Mayo v. Bland, 4 Md. Ch. 491.

As widow is a purchaser under this section, in case property devised to her is sold for payment of testator's debts, the sale should be subject to the widow's rights. Gibson v. McCormick, 10 G. & J. 113.

In order to entitle widow to dower under this section, there must be clear proof that nothing passed by the devise. Widow's claim under this section against mortgaged premises passed on. Chew v. Farmers' Bank, 9 Gill, 371.

This section does not alter necessity of a renunciation under sec. 311, and fact that widow is insane is immaterial. Collins v. Carman, 5 Md. 529.

This section applied and the word "purchaser" construed. Coomes v. Clements, 4 H. & J. 483.

This section applied and referred to in construing a will. Daughters v. Lynch, 93 Md. 309. And see Kuykendall v. Devecmon, 78 Md. 542; Gough v. Manning, 26 Md. 366; Durham v. Rhodes, 23 Md. 241; Snively v. Beavans, 1 Md. 223; Mantz v. Buchanan, 1 Md. Ch. 205.

Cited but not construed in Power v. Jenkins, 13 Md. 458.

An. Code, sec. 306. 1904, sec. 302. 1888, sec. 296. 1715, ch. 39, sec. 37.

315. If any married woman shall have any estate settled on her by her husband by jointure or other settlement, before marriage, such jointure or settlement shall bar her of her dower of such husband's lands, yet it shall be lawful for her to accept what her husband shall by his last will and testament devise to her.

This section does not deprive wife of her power to bar her dower by any other form of ante-nuptial contract. Effect of this section. Nail v. Maurer, 25 Md. 539; Schnepfe v. Schnepfe, 124 Md. 337.

316. If the widow commit waste in the lands of the deceased she shall be liable to an action by the heir or devisee, or his guardian.

317. In all cases where administration shall have been or shall hereafter be granted upon the estate of any married man who has left a widow and an infant child or infant children surviving him, the said child or children being also the child or children of the said widow, such widow
