

An. Code, sec. 10. 1904, sec. 10. 1888, sec. 10. 1860, ch. 109, sec. 9.

10. If any person so convicted shall think himself aggrieved by such conviction, he shall be at liberty to appeal from the judgment of the justice of the peace, within ten days from the rendition thereof, to the circuit court for the county wherein the offense is alleged to have been committed; provided, he give bond to the State with two sufficient securities, to be approved by the said justice, in a penal sum of double the amount in value of the boat or craft and property so seized and the fines imposed, to be estimated by the said justice, conditioned to prosecute his appeal to the circuit court; and it shall be the duty of the justice taking the appeal bond immediately to deliver the same to the officer who made the arrest; and in case of forfeiture of the bond the said officer may prosecute the same for his use and the use of those engaged with him in making the arrest and seizure.

An. Code, sec. 11. 1904, sec. 11. 1888, sec. 11. 1860, ch. 109, sec. 10.

11. If resistance be made to the officer engaged in making such arrest or seizure, such resistance shall be deemed a misdemeanor, presentable by the grand jury of the county, and punishable in the circuit court therefor by fine and imprisonment as other misdemeanors are punished.

An. Code, sec. 12. 1904, sec. 12. 1888, sec. 12. 1860, ch. 109, sec. 11.

12. After the payment of the costs of the prosecution of the offenders, the balance arising from the fine and the sale of the boat and other property hereinbefore mentioned shall be divided and apportioned in the following manner: one-half to the officer and those who assisted him in making the arrest and seizure, and the balance to be paid over to the county commissioners for the benefit of the school fund of the county. The preceding sections shall not apply to Baltimore, Harford or Cecil counties, as to which special provision is made in the local laws thereof.

An. Code, sec. 13. 1910, ch. 251, sec. 1 (p. 333). 1912, ch. 713. 1914, ch. 579.

13. It shall be unlawful to purposely or unnecessarily disturb in the waters of this State, or to pursue, kill or shoot at any wild fowl in or from any boat of any description within the limits of the State of Maryland, or to pursue, shoot or gather any wounded or dead ducks, geese, swan or brant in any boat propelled by or equipped with sail or engines of any kind within the said limits.

And it shall be unlawful for the owner or owners of any boat propelled by or equipped with sail or engines of any kind, or of any share or interest in such boat, to use or permit the use of such boat for any of the acts above prohibited, or to loan or hire such boat at any time between the 15th day of October of any year and the 1st day of April in the then next ensuing year, to any person or persons without making due inquiry into the purpose of those applying for the use of such boat and becoming satisfied that those applying for the use of such boat intend to use the same
