

and the first day of February following, shall be prima facie guilty of a violation of this Section. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace of this State, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each offense, and each wild duck, goose, swan or brant so shot at, killed or had in possession shall constitute a separate offense under this section; provided, however, that upon conviction the Court of Justice before whom such conviction shall have been had may in its or his discretion impose a single fine for each day or part of a day in which such violation of this section occurred, such fine to be not less than $100.00 nor more than $250.00 for every such day or part of a day, and any officer or other person other than the Game Warden or Deputy Game Wardens or officer under the Conservation Department receiving compensation, who shall procure the conviction of any person for violating any provision or provisions of this section, shall receive one-half of the fine recovered; the remaining one-half shall be paid to the State Game Department or to the State Comptroller to be placed to the credit of the State Game Protection Fund to be used as provided by law.¹

An. Code, sec. 15. 1910, ch. 251, sec. 3 (p. 336).

15. It shall be unlawful to shoot any wild fowl on Sundays throughout the year, and it shall be unlawful to net or trap ducks in any manner at any time during the year in the State of Maryland, or to employ dynamite in any manner whatsoever for the purpose of capturing or killing any species of wild fowl; and it shall further be unlawful in said State to shoot at or kill any wild duck, swan, goose or brant at any time or in any manner with a rifle, or to fire a rifle in and about places where wild duck, swan, goose or brant are congregated. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each and every offense.

An. Code, sec. 16. 1910, ch. 251, sec. 4 (p. 336).

16. It shall be unlawful to fish with nets or in any other manner on the Susquehanna Flats or in the waters of Romney Creek, in Harford county, between the fifteenth day of October and the first day of April. That part of the Chesapeake Bay and tributaries shall be known as the Susquehanna Flats which is contained within the following metes and bounds: All that portion of the Chesapeake Bay and tributaries lying south of a line drawn east from Concord Lighthouse, in Harford county, to Carpenters Point, on the western shore of Cecil county, and north of a line beginning at the lighthouse on Turkey Point, in Cecil county, and drawn westerly to a point half a mile north of the northerly part of Spesutea Island; thence continuing said line still westward, but at no time approaching nearer than a half mile from the northern end of said island and the ¹Sec. 2 of ch. 13 of acts of 1924 repeals all laws inconsistent with said ch. 13 to the extent of such inconsistency.