20. No person shall shoot, trap, pursue, catch or kill, or gun or hunt for any partridge or quail, English or Mongolian pheasant, American pheasant, dark neck Bohemian pheasant, pheasant or ruffed grouse, rabbit, wild turkey, woodcock or deer, within the State of Maryland between the first day of January and the tenth day of November in any year, exclusive of both dates, or any Squirrel or Dove within the State of Maryland between the first day of January and the first day of September, exclusive of both dates, or any squirrel between the fifteenth day of October and the tenth day of November exclusive of both dates; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit any owner or tenant of land from shooting any squirrel on any such land between the first day of September and the first day of January, both inclusive.

Nor upon Sunday, or when the ground is sufficiently covered with snow to track the birds and game above mentioned. And there shall be a daily closed season on all the above enumerated game birds and animals at night time.

Provided, however, an owner or owners of a dog or dogs, male or female, between September tenth and November ninth, exclusive of both dates, shall be permitted to run or train a dog or dogs, provided he or she or an attendant accompany it or them, but in so doing no person shall be allowed or permitted to carry a gun of any description.

And no person or persons, corporation or corporations shall sell, offer for sale, purchase or offer to purchase, barter, exchange, or buy at any time within the State of Maryland any bob-white or partridge, (quail) or Chinese Ringnecked Pheasant, native pheasant, or ruffed grouse, or wild turkey, either dead or alive, excepting live birds of such species as may be sold for propagation purposes only; and it shall be unlawful to sell, offer for sale, purchase or offer to purchase, barter, exchange, or buy such named birds at any time whether same are caught or killed within the State of Maryland, or any other State, Territory or Country. And in order to establish the Chinese Ringnecked pheasant in Maryland as an additional game bird, it shall be unlawful to shoot or trap or kill or take in any manner, at any time any Chinese Ringnecked Pheasant of any variety. Provided, however, any incorporated game or gun club who may purchase any Cock Chinese Ringnecked Pheasants from points outside of the State of Maryland and import same to be liberated on their property, which shall be enclosed with a fence not less than 6 feet in height, may kill said Cock Chinese Ringnecked Pheasants by shooting during the open season on upland game, as herein provided. Provided, however, such Chinese Ring-necked Pheasants if raised in captivity may be killed on the premises where
